

issue fourteen
august 2014

The Newsletter of Vale Lacemakers

HELLO EVERYONE

Yay summer has at last arrived!

Hope this lace day finds everyone fit and well, Tricia is doing the Amish Knotting Workshop today, hope you all enjoy this, I am looking forward to "getting knotted". Also don't forget to bring your jars or whatever glass you would like to paint to the next meeting for the Glass painting workshop, the cost for this is around £2.00 for the materials and can you please if you have one bring a stand as we will need some of the tables for the workshop, have a lovely day one and all.

A reminder for next meeting it will be the Competition and if my memory serves me right we said the theme was for bookmarks please correct me if I am wrong, good luck everyone.

Happy Lacemaking

RITA'S LOGO FOR ARGENTAN IN LACE

As many of you may know Rita has been going on Holiday to Argentan in Normandy for a number of years and has produced this wonderful piece of lace of their logo, which Rita proudly presented at one of her lace days in France this year and it now takes pride of place in the Museum, congratulations Rita.

NEXT MEETING GLASS PAINTING WORKSHOP!

Don't forget to bring your glass you want to paint.
The cost will be around £2.00

Please bring a stand for your lace as we'll be using some of the tables for the Glass Painting.

Thank you

OUR MEMBERS WORK

WHAT'S ON IN 2014 & 2015 DIARY

11 October 2014

Glass painting workshop

13 December 2014

Christmas Party

14 February 2015

Stuart Johnson

Vale lacemakers committee

Carol Icke – 01386 41330
email: carol.icke@btinternet.com

Joy Martin – 01386 422191
email: joy@martin3j.fsnet.co.uk

Tricia Smith – 01386 422197
email: triciasmith@btinternet.com

Elanor Smith
email: elanor.l.smith@gmail.com

Wendy Bradford – 01789 764195
email: wendybradford@sky.com